Raising the Bar

When you are passionate about what you do and where you work, the rest comes easy. That is the culture at Central 1 Credit Union, and that is precisely what it is looking for from you. Supporting nearly 200 member credit unions across British Columbia and Ontario, it is the backbone of the credit union system in both provinces – taking care of everything from liquidity management and online services, to payment processing, trade association services and more. With renewed leadership, its team of 650 employees represent some of the most innovative, passionate individuals you will ever meet; people who honestly care about the organization, its members and each other. Join this high performing team as the next...

Legal Executive

Reporting to the President and Chief Executive Officer, you will lead and motivate your team to deliver the highest quality of service and expertise, as well as ensure the integrity of Central 1's governance framework, including the Corporate Secretary function. In a clear and decisive manner, you will work closely with the Executive team, communicating legal risks of proposed actions. Providing a broad range of legal services to all areas of the business, you will analyze the developments and policy issues in the provincial and national legislation.

Along with your law degree, you are a respected leader with 12+ years of relevant, legal experience, including extensive participation in corporate commercial, regulatory and corporate governance matters. You are a member of good standing in the Law Society of BC or the Law Society of Upper Canada, and have worked in either a credit union, financial services or technology environment. Well versed in the art of negotiation, you effectively manage relationships with a wide variety of clients, stakeholders and regulators. Analytical by nature, your decisions are timely, informed and take into account facts, goals, constraints and risks.
