

Andrew Poprawa, CPA, CA, C. Dir., CGFM

Andy Poprawa is currently an independent board member serving on the boards of several financial institutions including a mutual fund company, a digital bank owned by one of Canada's largest credit unions, and several other corporate and not-for-profit organizations.

He is a senior advisor to a number of regulatory agencies and credit unions in Canada and internationally as well as supporting CARTAC and the IMF on specific assignments in the Caribbean region and elsewhere around the world. As a former regulator he has 38 years of experience in senior regulatory, governance, financial, risk management and leadership roles.

Andy is a Chartered Professional Accountant (Canada), Chartered Accountant (Canada), Chartered Director (Canada and the Caribbean) and a Certified Government Financial Manager (US).

He served as President & CEO of the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario (credit union regulator and deposit insurer) for 22 years, as a senior regulator with the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions for 10 years and as a Chief Financial Officer of an airline subsidiary. Andy was co-founder and long-time Chair of the International Credit Union Regulators Network. He currently serves on the Ontario Chapter Executive of the Institute of Corporate Directors and has served as the Chair of the Governance Advisory Committee at the Conference Board of Canada. In 2009, he earned his Chartered Director designation and was awarded the Gil Bennett Gold Standard Award by the Directors College. Andy can be reached at andrew.poprawa@gmail.com.